

Starting the Year Strong with Goal Setting

Last month we kicked off our Starting Strong Series with a lesson plan to support your new year launch. As we settle into September and move from the details of opening school to setting our aspirations, we turn to goal setting.

Click on your burning question to explore curated resources to help you answer it.

How do I guide faculty and staff in setting goals?

How do I facilitate a goal setting meeting?

How do I guide faculty and staff to attend to DEIB in goal setting?

How do I help staff check in on their goals to keep momentum?

Now that goals have been set, what patterns do we see?
